

CODE OF CONDUCT INVESTIGATION PROCESS

To make a formal Code of Conduct follow these steps:

Making a formal Code of Conduct complaint:

Make a formal Code of Conduct complaint in writing to the Operations Manager, by completing the Code of Conduct Complaint Form.

What happens next:

After receiving the formal complaint, and based on the material provided, the Operations Manager will determine those Code of Conducts that require investigating by the Judiciary Committee.

In making this decision the Operations Manager will take into account the following:

- The relationship between you and the respondent.
- Whether the facts of the complaint are in dispute.
- The urgency of the complaint, including the possibility that you might face further unacceptable behaviour while the process is underway.
- If this is a MNZ matter or a matter for the Police or other appropriate authority.

If the Judiciary Committee is the appropriate Committee to handle the complaint the Code of Conduct will be handled as per the rules set out in Chapter 7 of the MNZ Manual of Motorcycle Sport (Off Road & Road).
